

After a 60-year battle, today the Metro Board acted to move forward with a plan for the 710 corridor that the region finds reasonable, supportable and buildable. This is a direction that Senator Portantino and other community leaders have urged for years. I look forward to continued work with the Senator, Legislature and the community on this important issue.

-Brian Kelly, Secretary, CA State Transportation Agency

